

Award: plasmo in the „Trio of the Year 2009“

plasmo can now count itself among the „Trio of the Year 2009“, those particularly innovative and successful companies in the craft sector. At the 17th awarding of the „Trio of the Year“ prize on the 27th October 2009, plasmo was honored by the Austrian Federal Economic Chamber, the Bank Austria UniCredit Group and the business magazine trend.

Innovation convinces

“The power of innovation of this firm is impressive,“ plasmo customer Gerhard Giessauer, Head of Technology and Purchasing for Voestalpine Europlatinen GmbH is quoted as saying by the business magazine trend during the course of reporting on the „Trio of the Year 2009“. The jury highlighted the high capacity for innovation, the numerous national and international awards, the clientele of predominantly international Global Players, such as Daimler, PSA, VW, Tokyucar, Corus, etc. as well as the branches and sales partners in Germany, Japan and the Benelux countries and the planned further internationalization.

„Smile please!“

The members of the management Arnold Braunsteiner, CEO and Sabine Seidl, International Projects, accepted the award on behalf of the entire plasmo team from WKÖ-President Christoph Leitl, who stressed in his laudatory speech, that the KMU are the lifelines of the domestic economy.

You can find more about the „Trio of the Year“ here: www.trio-des-jahres.at